

Karl Naoe
8-73

52 Langston Avenue
Harlem, New York
60640
January 18th, 2011

Dear Mrs. Luella Bates Washington Jones,

I am truly sorry for trying to steal your pocketbook. The reason I took your pocketbook was because I was being selfish and I was too lazy to earn $10 on my own, so I tried to snatch your pocketbook.

Thank you for all of the things you told me that day, also for feeding me 10 cent cake, lima beans and ham. I would also like to thank you for not turning me into the police. When you told me "I have done thing, too, which I would not tell you son", it made me realize that no one is perfect and I'm not the only one that did something bad. I would also want to thank you for giving me the $10 for the blue suede shoes.

Once again, I am so sorry for trying to steal your pocketbook. Your advice made me realize I had to get more mature, and again I would like to say thank you ma'am.

Yours Truly,

Roger